

TGF EME – Management Update

October 2011

Wolfgang Eckert is Toll Global Forwarding's Corporate Development Manager for the Europe and Middle East region.

Based at the EME HQ in Zurich, and reporting directly to Stephen Stanley, Director Strategy /M & A at Toll Group, Melbourne, Wolfgang is now responsible for developing and evaluating potential acquisition and joint venture opportunities in the EME region, in line with TGF's ambitious global expansion strategy. To this end, he has already been involved in the recent purchase of Andree & Wilkerling in Germany.

Wolfgang joined TGF from Ernst & Young, Geneva, where he performed due diligence, valuations and business modelling, and undertook corporate restructuring projects for major clients over a period of eight years, working in the firm's Zurich, Geneva and Los Angeles offices.

--

Also joining the EME senior team is Christine Gabi, who is now Senior Legal Counsel. In this newly-created post, she is responsible for providing legal support and advice to the TGF EME management in connection with acquisitions.

Christine has worked in both in civil and common law, and was most recently Head of Legal Affairs at EMS Chemie - a worldwide chemicals company based in Switzerland and listed on the Swiss stock exchange. Her overall legal career spans 15 years working in a variety of services and industry sectors, and has included a lengthy period in Western Australia where she practiced as solicitor and barrister.

Christine describes herself as a "passionate downhill skier", and is a dedicated practitioner of yoga.

--

Tommy Jensen is the EME region's newly-appointed Regional Tender and Key Account Manager, in charge of developing and managing the department of the same name. He is based at the regional head office in Zurich.

Tommy joins TGF from Danish (C20 stock listed) DSV, headquartered in Copenhagen, where he performed a corporate role in the Air & Sea division as Global Account Manager for the past four years. During a total 12 years in the freight industry, he has worked in various aspects of forwarding, including developing and managing a start-up; he has been based in the USA, Thailand, the UK and Denmark.. At TGF, he replaces Delphine Chabroux, who is taking up a new post within TGF USA.

Tommy is 32 and Danish, but of Thai origin. In addition to his native Danish, he speaks fluent English, is knowledgeable in German, Swedish and Norwegian, and has basic oral Thai. In his spare time he travels, rides a motorbike, keeps fit and is also a keen photographer.